

Aachen Student Platform for Social Awareness & Leadership Competence is pleased to welcome you to the

Social Business Administration School 2009 RWTH Aachen University

Today society faces one of the worst economic crisis of all times. Never before has there been such a need for higher social awareness from both members of society and institutions, in order to master the development challenges appearing in this new millennium.

Would you like to:

- Familiarize yourself with relevant issues shaping society today?
- Engage yourself socially for the challenges of developing world?
- Take active part in an international AixSPACE social project abroad?

Join a cooperation network of social experts and international students looking forward to promoting social awareness through proactive engagement as intermediaries of sustainable development, towards the execution of social projects for the benefit of needy people in the developing world.

➔ Next venue: Social Entrepreneurship

- Changing the world with (social) entrepreneurship

Dipl.-Kfm. René Mauer, Prof. Dr. Malte Brettel

Chair for Business Administration and Business Studies for Engineers and Scientists

- Intercultural Communication: Key Skills for Global Collaboration and Leadership

Dr.-Ing. Stephan Petersen

➔ November 7th

10:00am – Ford-Saal, SuperC (Templergraben 57)

Entrance free – for more information please visit our website

<http://www.aixspace.rwth-aachen.de>

+++ live broadcasting in Internet +++ in cooperation with